BLACK POLYNESIA

The Sydney Morning Herald of the 20th June, states that the Upolu brought news of trouble in the Solomons from returned Queensland kanakas. Mr. P. Brown, employed on the plantation of Captain W. H. Pope, at Cape March on April 2, and Mr. Oliver Byrnes, a trader at Maravou Lagoon some days later, were murdered by natives with tomahawks. In a rather sensational report it is stated that a general uprising is feared, and that the kanakas have said: "You got a White Australia, we will have a Black Polynesia." The murderers of Mr. Byrnes are reported to have been a man and a woman, and that the former was hung near the scene of his crime, while the latter is being brought to Fiji for life imprisonment.

NO REPORT ON IAUKEA

IT IS A BIG DOCUMENT WHICH THE COMMITTEE WANTS TO RE-VISE.

Disappointment met the expectation of a report on the Iaukea-Isol investigation, at the Board of Supervisors meeting last night. Chairman Kealoha of the committee said it was not yet in shape for presentation. It contained 76 pages of typewritten testimony and needed going over. Chairman Hustace of the Board expected a promise that the report would be ready for next Wednesday evening, while showing he begrudged the time at what would be a busy session.

An item of $196.25 of extra expenditure by the police department in July came up on a recommendation by Cox that it be paid out of the regular August police allowance.

Harvey objected, thinking a special vote should be made. The department had saved over $1000 of its appropriations during the year.

Hustace, on being informed that the outlay had been for sleeping accommodations for the police in feet week, so that a force should be on hand for any emergency, said the precaution was unnecessary as the fleet did its own policing ashore. He objected to a special vote mainly, though, because the county sheriff never consults the police committee, as other heads of departments do their committees, on extra expenditures.

The recommendation by Cox prevailed, only Harvey opposing. But one other difference occurred at the meeting, which was an objection by Archer to voting $1000 for immediate repairs to the Waimea bridge. He thought the work should await the voting of appropriations for next month. The meeting was against him, as the condition of the bridge is dangerous.

There was some desultory talk on testing the Municipal Act before registration begins, the result of which was that the chair asked the County Attorney, through his deputy Mr. Milverton, for an opinion on the question. At the same time the sense of the majority seemed to be that it was not a matter for the Board's interference, especially since the Attorney General's department has a test case already in incubation.

Harvey was informed by the chair that Diamond Head road work would be taken up when the operations on Waiialea hill were a little more advanced. It was desired to make one job of the macadamizing of the related highways in question.

From the Superintendent of Public Works came notification of exchanges of land for the straightening of Fort street and of extension of tenancy from the Bishop estate of dumping that the county fill in the extension of ground harbor dredging on condition Kakaako street.

A protest by C. J. Young against alleged trespass at Heela was found.

ANGELICAN CHURCH CHRONICLE STOPS

AFTER QUARTER CENTURY'S EXISTENCE IT IS REPLACED BY HAWAIIAN CHURCH CHRONICLE

According to the following letter, a Honolulu monthly drops out after a vigorous life of more than a quarter of a century. The Anglican Church Chronicle was started by Rev. Alexander Mackintosh and Rev. George Wallace, of the clergy of St. Andrew's cathedral. On the departure of Mr. Wallace about twenty years ago Mr. Mackintosh kept on with the paper, maintaining it until he left for England last year. Later he has settled permanently in that country. The Chronicle proved Canon Mackintosh to be a journalist who would have made his mark in general newspaper work. It has always been readable and newsy, a paper that a non-churchman would peruse with interest. Honolulu, T. H., August 19, 1908.—Editor Honolulu Times: The Anglican Church Chronicle has suspended publication. Its place will be taken by the Hawaiian Church Chronicle under the immediate supervision of the Bishop of Honolulu.

The newspaper will be devoted to the interests of the American branch of the Catholic Church "known in law" as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and more directly to the missionary work carried on in these islands under the care of Bishop Restarick.

The new management will be glad to exchange with the "Times."

Faithfully yours,
W. E. POTWINE.

To Anne M. Prescott.
